

RADF Round 9 (Feb-Apr 2018)

Applicant	Brief Description	Art form of project	Special conditions of the funding.	Panel recommended funding amount
Ms Louise Guy	Publication of 'A Life Worth Stealing' Women's Fiction Manuscript - To bring a fiction manuscript to publication, i.e. Developmental editing, copy editing, proof-reading, cover design and book formatting are required.	Writing		-
Mr James Stuchbery-Davis	Produce and Distribute Single/Music Video - To professionally record, film and release a single. Employ publicist to market / distribute single.	Music, Visual Art		$5,000
Noosa Junction Assoc. Inc.	Boring Walls and Lanes with Art - Creating public art on 4 blank walls in Junction laneways, walls and public spaces that attracts people, highlights the arts, expands social activation and discourages antisocial behaviour.	Community Arts and Cultural Development, Visual Art	Need to provide evidence of partnership with youth (schools etc.), budget and project plan to be resubmitted to reflect reduced funding. Council staff and property owners to approve location of artwork and consultation with the design of the artwork to be undertaken with the Noosa Council Gallery Director.	$6,000
Ms Maxine Stibbe	Max : Melbourne - Maxine Stibbe's solo exhibition December 2018 Melbourne creating professional development, increasing national profile, representing regional emerging female arts and practice.	Community Arts, Development, Multi-arts, Visual Art		-
Pomona Arts Inc.	A Vaudeville Affair @ The Majestic - The Majestic Theatre (Pomona) presents 'a vaudeville affair' with the Doo Wop Dolls and others. This show is a celebration of love and creative inspiration: A fun filled night of many and varied sensational performances.	Dance, Multi-arts, Music		$3,000
Wallace House Quilters (auspiced by Noosa Arts and Crafts Assoc. Inc.)	Take an Element - Seeing the possibilities - A quilt design workshop and Trunk Show with Margaret Sampson-George will be held at Wallace House on 17-18 April 2019	Craft, Design		$1,700
Noosa and District Landcare Group Inc.	Wild Weaving - Motoyuki artistically replicates a woven Australian Wild Nest and Kilagi creates weaving PNG style.	Community Arts and Cultural Development, Visual Art, Craft		-

Applicant	Brief Description	Art form of project	Special conditions of the funding.	Panel recommended funding amount
Mrs Tania Nash	Wolf Lullaby - A group of young creatives mentored by two theatre professionals in the creation of a performance of Hilary Bell's play Wolf Lullaby. The setting is Tait Duke Cottage and performance includes original soundscape, projected imagery and lighting designed to compliment the eeriness that surrounds Halloween.	Community Arts and Cultural Development, Multi-arts, Theatre		-
Noosa Orchestra	Noosa Orchestra combines with Noosa Alive! and a professional pianist Simon Tedeschi for a spectacular concert including young emerging musicians.	Music		$2,107
Ceramic Centre For Excellence Inc.	Tim Christensen Workshop and Residency - To host USA sgraffito artist, Tim Christensen, for one week showcase residency in Cooroy in the Noosa Shire and to present one weekend of intensive workshops in Cooroy, open to the wider ceramic arts community.	Community Arts and Cultural Development, Visual Art		$1,600
Mrs Rachel Forsyth	Joanne - Produce a short film, showcasing Noosa, the region and talent from the Noosa and the Sunshine Coast, invigorating the film and TV industry and promoting our region through the short film festival circuit.	Multi-arts, Writing, Other		-
Noosa Arts Theatre Inc.	Cosi Lighting - Design and rig lighting, conduct training and a workshop for Noosa Arts' production of "Cosi" in September 2018.	Community Arts and Cultural Development, Design	ABN for lighting professional	$3,000
Dr Amanda Cole	Hildegard Multimedia Project - Multimedia works (voice, psaltery, language, translation, images – still and moving) to exhibit in Tree Project (Noosa Regional Gallery) and beyond.	Music, Visual Art, Writing	Resubmit budget and demonstrate community benefit by explaining how the project will extend beyond the exhibition.	$2,540
Mr Timothy Stainlay	Surf on Mars - A look at the everyday conditions of the working class in coastal-suburbia, Australia.	Visual Art, Other		-

Total $24,947.00