

Attachment 1

RADF Grant Recommendations Round 18

Applicant	Project Title	Project Description	Special Conditions	Recommended Amount	Reasons why unsuccessful
Pomona & District Community House	Youth Zinesters Unite - Tell Us!	Pomona & District Community House will commission artist, Jeremy Staples to run a series of zine workshops for young people that will culminate in a showcase event developed and delivered by the young people.		$3,635.00
Mrs Petalia Humphreys	Studio 26 - a collaborative curatorial project	Petalia Humphreys and Jaime Kiss, producers of Studio 26, will facilitate a series of events including critical conversations, exhibitions, networking: supporting local reductive abstraction visual art practices.	If the Australia Council funding is not successful, resubmit the project plan and budget for RADF funded component.	$7,500.00
Miss Tia Carrigan	The Bees, The Birds & The Garden They Live In	Local artist, Tia Carrigan will create a 92sqm art mural at Pomona Primary School incorporating local flora and fauna themes with support from Landcare and Pomona Community House.		$6,230.00
Sonder Studio Gallery LTD	Showing up to Gather	Sonder Gallery will facilitate a 2023 NAIDOC program that includes First Nations curators, exhibiting Indigenous art, skills development workshops, launching a brand product, panel discussion, and a ceremonial opening event and music and market closing event.		$7,500.00
Mrs Tania Edwards	Kazuya Ishida Woodfire residency and workshops at Arcadia Studio	Local artist Tania Edwards and visiting Japanese wood fired ceramics expert, Kazuya Ishida will present a series of 3 workshops for 36 artists, a wood firing of the Arcadia Studio anagama kiln, an artists talk, and a presentation to TAFE students during the firing.		$7,500.00

Paulie & Friends	Paulie Maloney	Paulie Maloney will work with local female surf art photographers, filmmakers and a visual artist to deliver a multidimensional event at Shelter Sun City gallery showcasing local female creatives to promote women's empowerment in Noosa's art and surf culture.		$6,075.00
Mrs Lucy Laino	Postcard Sized Perspectives	Artist and teacher, Lucy Laino will deliver a series of open-access visual art workshops using a postcard format to engage the wider community, including young people and older people.		$0.00	Further information required. Officer to work with applicant to apply in future rounds or seek external funding
Mrs Cara Robinson	Recording and filming of original material	Local band, Hat Fitz and Cara will collaborate with other musicians and artists to record two new songs and create a music film clip.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Application did not rate as high as projects recommended for funding. Officers to work with applicant to investigate external funding sources.
Miss Sari Abbott	Record, launch and promote a new single for Sari Abbott	Local emerging musician, Sari Abbott will record and release a new original music single, influenced by life in Noosa, and launch it locally, with a film clip shot in the region.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Application did not rate as high as projects recommended for funding. Officers to work with applicant to investigate external funding sources.
Mr William Clift	Will Clift - EP and Single Launch Event	Local emerging musician, Will Clift will release his second EP accompanied by a single release event held at a local venue.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Application did not rate as high as projects recommended for funding. Officers to work with applicant to investigate external funding sources.

Mr David Erskine	Cabaret Mask Theatre	Theatre producer, David Erskine will form an acting ensemble and train them in the traditions of mask theatre. The group will then perform an original play in the style of Commedia dell'Arte for the 2023 Anywhere Festival.		$0.00	Further information required. Application did not rate as high as projects recommended for funding. Officers to work with applicant to apply in future rounds or seek external funding
Ms Bianca Tainsh	Sounds for topography - artistic and professional evolution	Mixed media artist, Bianca Tainsh will be mentored by expert sound artist Leah Barclay to learn sound recording techniques and use these new skills to further develop a body of work for inclusion in Floating Land 2023.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Application did not rate as high as projects recommended for funding. Officers to work with applicant to investigate external funding sources.
Cooroy Future Group	Engage	Cooroy Butter Factory Arts Centre will deliver a quality professional development program for our four Noosa emerging artists that combines one on one mentoring, exhibition development and presentation and focused training in a key career development area.		$0.00	Further information required. Officers to work with applicant to apply in future rounds or seek external funding.
Federal Memorial Hall & Community Centre	Art work on concrete tanks	Federal Hall committee will commission an artist to paint a mural on concrete tanks at Federal Hall		$0.00	Further information required. Officers to work with applicant to apply in future rounds or seek external funding.
Mr Jack Hagan	Within Reach	Jack Hagan will deliver a community arts engagement project to connect the wider community with resident of aged care facilities through art postcards.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Further information required.
Ms Alana Rhodes	Children's story book	Alana Rhodes will work with two illustrators to create new illustrations to accompany two new children's stories she has written.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Further information required.

Ms Samantha Jensen	HomeBodies	HomeBodies is a unique, inclusive multi-art form event in a home setting which will provide opportunities for local artists and musicians and bring the community together.		$0.00	Insufficient funds. Further information required.
			Total (ex GST)	$38,440.00	